Miami, OK Penmac Office Relocates to Historic Building Move Marks Growth in Local Division of Company

Miami, OKLAHOMA—Penmac Personnel announced today its Miami, OK office has moved into the historic St. James building. An open house and ribbon cutting was held to celebrate the move on March 28, 2008. The move accommodates recent growth within the staffing company and enables Penmac to better serve the ever-growing number of applicants and businesses in Miami and the surrounding area.

Area Manager Linda Clark says that the move is essential in being able to provide superior services to the region, as Penmac had outgrown their former location on Main Street in Miami.

“We loved the downtown location,” says Clark. “We stayed downtown, but relocated to the St. James historical building that has been renovated into office spaces, restaurant, and loft apartments. Our space has high ceilings, large floor-to-ceiling windows, marble architectural detailing, and original light fixtures. We are very proud of our new office space, and happy that Penmac can be a part of preserving downtown Miami’s historic buildings.”

“At Penmac, we are constantly striving to find ways to further serve our clients and associates,” says Clark. “Our new location will allow us more room to better service our customers and associates.”

Clark says the new office will provide the same services as before, including temporary and permanent staffing for manufacturing, clerical, transportation and professional entities.

“We work very hard to go the extra mile for our clients,” says Clark. “Even through our growth, we have managed to maintain the flexibility to provide services and programs to meet the specific needs of each Penmac client and associate.”

The new office is located at 103 East Central Street, Suite 500, Miami, OK 74354.

Penmac Personnel, based out of Springfield, MO, is an employment agency that serves over 3,000 associates working for more than 600 clients nationwide.
